Wath Hall, Low Marishes Malton, North Yorkshire

A handsome detached country residence with adjoining annexe, delightful gardens and grounds, and paddock land, extending in all to 3.05 acres (1.23 ha) or thereabouts.

Wath Hall has been sympathetically modernised and improved, whilst enhancing the original features to create a superb family home. The principal residence is constructed of the local, honey-coloured stone under slate roof and is attractively located within its own private gardens and grounds. Adjoining to the rear there is useful annexe accommodation, which also offer scope for alternative uses and improvements. In all, approximately 4,786 sq. ft. of internal accommodation. Unusually, the property is not listed.

The gardens and grounds wrap around the property and the south-facing aspect is particularly attractive, enjoying far-reaching views across the Vale of Pickering towards the Wolds. Beyond the homestead and to the south, there are situated two useful grass paddocks with field shelters.

Wath Hall is conveniently located between the ever-popular North Yorkshire market towns of Malton and Pickering, and yet only 20 miles from the City of York.

Viewing is essential to appreciate the extensive internal and external space on offer at this fine country residence.

In all 3.05 acres (1.23 hectares) or thereabouts. Additional parcel of adjoining land extending to 5.61 acres (2.27 ha) or thereabouts is available to purchase alongside Wath Hall, subject to separate negotiation.
